

Moon Flowers

Today's the day I know its true
I'm going to prove to all of you
Who didn't believe me
Come here and see me
I'm going to jump to the moon.

It's too bad you thought this an impossible task
I would have let you come; now alone I must bask
In all of my glory
I truly am sorry
It's too bad you can't come... don't ask!

I guess that's what you get for laughing at me
Instead of coming, you must stay behind and see
How high I can leap
I hope you can keep
The image of me jumping in glee.

Enough of this talk; go gather the kin
I want people here to see me win
Let this serve as inspiration
And some good motivation
Now let the count down begin.

10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 JUMP

I'm off. Oh my god, I'm up in the air
As I pass all the stars I say a quick prayer
Don't shoot me too far
I can't land on a star
I must land on the moon with some care.

I see it, I'm close, but I'm shooting too high
I can't believe I even thought I should try
I've gone way past it
I'm getting too spastic
Oh how I wish I could fly

Look at me, I'm so high, I feel so tall
But wait, I've slowed down, I'm starting to fall
This can't be the end
I'm going to land
On the moon I hope the cheese breaks my fall

I did it, I landed but much to my shock
The cheese didn't break my fall; I landed on rock
That's going to bruise
But now I must choose
What I'm going to bring back to the flock

I look around the moon, there's nothing to aid
How will I show that I'm in the moon shade?
I need to have proof
They won't believe the truth
I have to bring something moon made

I get up and look for something to bring
Just as I'm looking I hear something sing
I turn around to see
What could that be?
Hopefully a natural moon thing

What's that over there? It looks like a flower
A tiny moonflower singing with power
What is that worth?
I'll take that back to Earth
And be the girl that brought back the moonflower

I walk over to the blossom, "I just want to talk"
The flower stops singing, just my luck
"It's okay little flower,
You don't have to cower
This won't hurt at all".... PLUCK

"See you're okay, now let's be on our way"
As I go to the edge the flower yells, "HEY"
"Don't take me from my home
Only here I can roam
Please let me stay...what do you say?"

“No, you are coming. I have to show proof”
“If you don’t come, they’ll think it’s a spoof”
Just come and be quiet
There is no need for violence
It’s time to jump now.... POOF

I’m falling again back down to the start
But what was the sound I heard on depart?
I look in my palm
The flower is gone
I can feel an ache in my heart

My palm is empty I notice with disgust
All that’s left is some moonflower dust
What should I do?
No one will know the truth
How can that be just?

I’m falling down; faster and faster I go
The flora is gone and I’m sad although
I feel really bad
The moonflower is dead
And I’m falling back down with nothing to show

Next time I jump to the moon I’ll recall
You can’t take a souvenir back at all
I’ll bring a friend
Together we’ll spend
Time on the moon to show all
